The Mission of Our Members is that

- We are dedicated women and men who reflect a spirit of fraternal love and work together for a common good.
- We give our time and talent to projects to benefit mankind, to make a difference in our world, and to provide fellowship opportunities.
- Our open fundraising events include a salad luncheon, fashion show, Scandinavian luncheon, cooking demonstration, Michael Monroe concert, pajama party, and Bunco party. Since 1983 we have hosted our Annual Cancer Dance which is open to public and supports the OES Cancer Scholar.
- Among ourselves we collect freewill offerings at dinner, scrapbooking, presentations, penny jar, bake sales, and direct member donations for special fundraisers like the Keystone Food Shelf. We receive memorials and matching funds upon occasion.

The Members of Our Chapter Actively Practice Charity, Truth, and Loving Kindness

- In the Uplifting of each other
- In Service to our communities
- Through a Connected and Dedicated environment
 - With our scriptural Lessons
 - With our beneficent Purposes

- In our moral Teachings and Actions

We Uplift Each Other

- Through Cheer cards sent for illness, sympathy, support, holiday greetings, through Cheer visiting, and through Cheer baskets filled with cookies, pens, a calendar. We distribute a monthly Stardust Newsletter.
- Visitors attend Chapter meetings and events from across the country and our members attend other Chapter meetings and events. We host Grand Family visits and travel on their trips, as well.

We Uplift Others

- Members participate in the St. Paul Sewing Unit to make lap robes and pillows delivered to the Masonic Cancer Center Auxiliary, Marion Care Center, Ramsey County Care Center, Emma Norton Women's Home of St. Paul, Lyngblomsten Senior Care Center, Masonic Homes – Bloomington, and Eastern Star Home - Redfield, South Dakota. Members fill leadership roles.
